AWARD MESSAGE

Dear Aseem, These unprecedented times call for super-human efforts, and I want to thank you for yours. As the need for collaboration technology and Webex skyrocketed with the expanding global pandemic, you jumped in immediately and helped lead our critical response to this huge challenge. The late nights/weekends, out of box thinking, and pitching in to help wherever needed is what made the difference. Your work ensured Cisco delivered business continuity while keeping so many employees and their families safe. Our customers appreciate this support and have confidence that we will be there for them as we move forward together. I have never been prouder to work at Cisco with fantastic people like you!
